

September Updates of Forthcoming Events

There have been some changes to the forthcoming events as listed in the August Newsletter.

Work has begun on restoring the kitchen at the Cambrian Hall after the difficulties over the summer. There will be a work party on the morning of September 24th at 9am to set the kitchen back in order. We will happily be able to go ahead with the following planned lunch:

Lunch at the Cambrian.

You are cordially invited to join us for convivial company and lively conversation, from 11.30 - 1.30 on the 4th Wednesday of each month. On September 24th, flower arranging will be featured and it is hoped, music on the Player Piano. A Bridge table will be an alternative for enthusiasts. A Book Exchange is planned, so if you are interested, bring a paperback or two which you have enjoyed and are prepared to exchange. Later in the year, we want to include topics of special interest to you. Please bring a packed lunch, which could be shared, if you wish.

Pat Morris

While Llanelli Male Voice Choir are in town:

Thursday, September 25th Noson Lawen at 7:30 pm. Anyone wishing to participate should call one of the executive.

Friday, September 26th As Côr Meibion Llanelli have been invited to a function by Gren Thomas, the proposed Quiz night has been postponed.

Saturday, September 27th Grand Concert at the Bell Centre presented by the Vancouver Orpheus and The Welsh Society. Côr Meibion Llanelli Male Voice Choir and the Orpheus Male Voice Choir are featured as described in the August Newsletter. Members may contact Alwyn Rogers for tickets (604-742-1378).

Saturday, October 18th, Film night: This has been postponed.

Sunday, October 19th, NEW EVENT Concert at 7:30 pm by Ysgol Bro Morgannwg

Ysgol Bro Morgannwg from Barry in Glamorgan is touring BC with a boys rugby team and girls field hockey team. There are 60 very talented students and all are members of their choir. Amongst them they have a drama group, a harpist, an orchestra, soloists and dancers. We will be serving them a meal in the Red Dragon and then they will perform a concert in the upper Hall. Everyone is invited to the concert that will begin at 7:30pm. This young group sounds much like the Ystalyfera school group that came through a few years ago and we are expecting a great show.

Saturday, November 1st at 7pm Anniversary Dinner.

Sunday, November 2nd at 2pm, Gymanfa Ganu followed by Tê Bach.

Saturday, December 6th Carols and Mulled Wine and maybe a quiz night.

Sunday, December 14th Children's Christmas Party (numbers permitting) Please note that names must be submitted by November 14th.

Saturday, December 20th Christmas Dinner.

Rescheduling of General Meetings:

It was decided at the last General Meeting that in future General Meetings will be held on Mondays instead of Wednesdays. The next General Meeting will therefore be held on Monday November 10th.